Illuminated Journeys invites you to

Contemplative Ireland

A Celtic Pilgrimage May 6–20, 2022

Welcome!

You are invited to join us not as a tourist, but as a pilgrim. Along the way you will be encouraged to approach each experience with contemplative awareness and each sacred site with care. Time will be given for learning, integration, meditation and interaction. As we journey together, we will focus on major themes in the Irish spiritual tradition. Time will be spent exploring how those themes can be integrated into our lives.

Optional meditative sessions will include the music of the Taizé community, Celtic music, mandala work, journaling, small group interaction, discussions with our leaders, Irish music and prayer.

Because registration is limited to 20 participants, group size will encourage personal interaction in style and content.

When we are joined by local specialists, mythologists, archaeologists, artisans, musicians and storytellers to share experiences and offer guidance to us, there will be opportunities for interaction.

We are confident that your journey will be a fulfilling one. We have gone before you, having traveled to Ireland many times to meet with those who will join us as we go.

Accessibility: Many of the places we visit and explore reflect the rugged isolation of early Irish hermits. In order to reach these sacred prayer cells, passage tombs and monasteries, we will often travel by foot. This pilgrimage is not recommended for those who have severe health problems or limited mobility.

Thursday, May 5, 2022 – Fly to Dublin. Arrive before noon on May 6.

Friday, May 6, 2022

We arrive in Dublin early in the morning. We'll meet our bus and driver and head North for an introduction to Celtic Spirituality at a 5000 year-old passage tomb in County Meath. The rest of the afternoon at our retreat center in the Boyne Valley is yours to walk or to relax. Short evening welcome reception after dinner.

STAY: In the Boyne Valley

Saturday, May 7, 2022

This day's journey will take us to the most extraordinary high crosses in all of Ireland at Monasterboice followed by a short drive north to visit one of the most well-preserved ancient dolmen stones in Ireland. Dinner at our retreat center followed by an evening meditation.

STAY: In the Boyne Valley

Sunday, May 8, 2022

Today we tour the ancient burial sites of Newgrange and Knowth and visit the informative visitor's center there. After lunch we'll move on to the Hill of Slane and the famed Hill of Tara with its mysteries. We return to our retreat center for a meal and a meditation.

Monday, May 9, 2022

This morning we say goodbye to our retreat center in the Boyne Valley and travel across the border of Northern Ireland on our way to the town of Sligo on Ireland's dramatic West Coast. Lunch in the Northern Irish town of Enniskillen. Dinner and overnight at a lovely seaside hotel. We may venture out late evening to hear some traditional Irish music. (Hotel has hot tubs, pool and exercise equipment. You may want to bring swim wear and swim cap and/or work-out clothes)

STAY: Sligo

Tuesday, May 10, 2022

First thing this morning, we'll visit the Carrowmore megalithic monuments near Sligo, one of the world's most impressive prehistoric ritual sites. Back to the hotel in time for lunch and time to rest and relax, walk on the beach, or visit the Yeat's gravesite in Drumcliffe to reflect on his life and poetry.

STAY: Sligo

Wednesday, May 11, 2022

Today we wind our way through the beauty of County Mayo toward Kylemore Abbey and Connemara National Park. Following lunch in Westport, we move on through County Galway to board a late afternoon ferry to cross Galway Bay for two nights on the Aran Islands.

STAY: Aran Islands (Inishmore)

Thursday, May 12, 2022

Home to some of the earliest Christian settlements in Ireland, we will discover how rugged, isolated landscapes on the Aran Islands formed a distinct spirituality that became a beacon of light for European Christianity in the Middle Ages.

STAY: Aran Islands (Inishmore)

Friday, May 13, 2022

Following a guided exploration of the unique spiritual tradition of the Aran Islands, we board the ferry where we'll enter the rugged beauty of the Burren and visit the cliffs of Moher, one of the most dramatic cliffs in Western Europe. Dinner and overnight at our seaside hotel.

STAY: County Clare

Saturday, May 14, 2022

We'll enjoy a drive through Co Clare on our way to the remote western beauty of the Dingle peninsula. For the next two nights our group will take over two bed and breakfast inns. (Ferry ride from Clare to Kerry)

STAY: Dingle Town

Sunday, May 15, 2022

The Dingle peninsula is home to a variety of stone circles, monastic settlements, beehive huts, a perfectly preserved oratory, the Blasket Islands, and an excellent visitor's center. A local archeologist and guide will join us for our tour of the Dingle peninsula. Dingle Town is home to artisans and musicians who specialize in the Celtic tradition. Free evening.

STAY: Dingle Town

Monday, May 16, 2022

Leaving Dingle en route to the Irish heartland, we stop in the quaint town of Adare, known for its thatched cottages, then travel on to Kildare Town, stopping to visit two important high crosses in Castledermot and the unique cross at the ancient monastery of Moone.

STAY: Kildare

Tuesday, May 17, 2022

Kildare, the church of the oak, is the historic home of St. Brigid and now the home of the Brigidine sisters. We begin our day with a meditation at the Christian Community Center called Solas Bhríde and spend time with the energetic and visionary sisters who are leading a renaissance in women's spirituality in Ireland. We'll pray with them in the serene surroundings of Brigid's well and visit the Cathedral before driving over the ancient pilgrim route across the Wicklow Mountains to Glendalough.

STAY: Near Glendalough

Wednesday, May 18, 2022

Glendalough, the "valley of the two lakes," is where we will be greeted by one of the most remarkable round towers in all of Ireland. We'll stay near Glendalough so you can visit these magnificent ruins as much as possible.

STAY: Near Glendalough

Thursday, May 19, 2022

A day in Glendalough to explore, relax and reflect. A beautiful outdoor labyrinth is available all day for your walking meditation. Dinner and goodbye celebration.

STAY: Near Glendalough

Friday, May 20, 2022
